Summer Preparation Task

Modern History – Germany

Purpose of task:

- To understand how Germany was unified by 1871 and the role that Bismarck played in forging a modern state.
- To develop skills in research, organisation and written communication.

Task: You are going to produce a research project exploring two key questions which are fundamental to the A level history course.

Your project should be thoroughly researched using at least 5 different websites/books/articles etc and these should be listed in a bibliography at the end of your project

Your project should be written in your own words and have a colourful and creative layout which engages the reader, including headings, images and annotated maps.

Part 1: How was German unified by 1871?

You need to research:

- a) The growth of German nationalism 1815-1850
- b) The Battle of Schleswig-Holstein 1863
- c) The Austro-Prussian War 1866
- d) The Franco-Prussian War 1870-71

Success criteria:

- ✓ For each war you need to explain: the causes of the 3 wars, which states/countries were involved and what the consequences of the conflicts were (with particular emphasis on German territory and power)
- ✓ You should provide a conclusion, directly answering: how was Germany unified by 1871?

Part 2: Why is Otto von Bismarck remembered as ‘the Iron Chancellor’?

You need to research the life and legacy of Bismarck including:

- a) Early life
- b) Achievements
- c) Allies and enemies
- d) Death and legacy

Success criteria:

- ✓ You need to provide a range of details about each aspect of Bismarck’s life and legacy
- ✓ You should provide a conclusion, directly answering the question: why is Bismarck remembered as ‘the Iron Chancellor’?
