

The Thomas Hardy School

Joining the
Thomas Hardy School
Sixth Form

An Outstanding School. Ofsted 2015

What is important to us?

Your success

Every year around 150 students join our Sixth Form from 33 different schools

These students make the Sixth Form what it is!

They are ambitious, bold and determined!

All groups of students make exceptional progress across the school.

Ofsted, 2015

What is important to us?

Your success

Amy Steadman (Brighton) UCL to study History

Camilla Llewellyn (All Saints)
Plymouth to study Dentistry, spent the summer volunteering
at a clinic in Sri Lanka

All groups of students make exceptional progress across the school.

Ofsted, 2015

What is important to us?

Your success

Joseph Arey (Beaminster) Oxford to study PPE

Emma Osborne (Budmouth) Oxford to study Psychology

Ella McGrady (Colfox) Apprenticeship at JP Morgan, London

All groups of students make exceptional progress across the school.

Ofsted, 2015

What is important to us?

Your transition

- Joining us shows you are determined to get out of your comfort zone
- It shows you have high aspirations to succeed
- Teachers will treat you the same as any other student in their new class
- You are someone we would be delighted to have and we will support you to maximise your potential

They actively promote equality of opportunity and this ensures that they are exceptionally welcoming and supportive of others.

Ofsted, 2015

What is important to us?

Your support

- Tutor

- 3 friends in tutor group
- Academic tutorials with daily contact

- Bursary

- Financial support

- Counsellor

- Looking after your wellbeing

- Ansbury careers service

- Independent advice

- E4E

- Educational support

- Student Union

- Student voice

*Pastoral leadership of the school is remarkable;
students are known as individuals.*

Ofsted, 2015

The Thomas Hardy School

See Mrs Graham for more details

Only around £1.20 per journey from Bridport

Only around £1 per journey from Weymouth

An Outstanding School. Ofsted 2015

The Travel Subsidy

The Travel Subsidy is a one off payment of £100 towards the cost of travelling to and from the Thomas Hardy School Sixth Form.

Eligibility Criteria

- Enrolled at the Thomas Hardy Sixth Form in September 2018 as a Year 12 student
- Lives at least 4 miles away from the Thomas Hardy School
- Using public or concessionary transport daily to travel to and from the Thomas Hardy School
- See Mrs Buck for further information

An Outstanding School. Ofsted 2015

The Student Experience

Mary Taylor

(St. Edward's, Poole)

Bilal Khan

(Moat Community College, Leicester)

Emily Fraher

(Wey Valley School, Weymouth)

An Outstanding School. Ofsted 2015