

Department Information

Sociology

This is an exciting opportunity to join a highly successful department. Sociology has grown increasingly popular in recent years and we are looking to recruit a motivated, friendly and dynamic member of staff to join our team. This could also be an opportunity to take on the role of subject leader.

We currently offer A level sociology through the AQA syllabus. We teach a diverse range of topics to our students including; Families and Households, Education, Research methods, Belief in society, Crime and Deviance and Theory and methods. Students have access to a wide variety of resources and the social sciences faculty also benefits from extensive ICT facilities.

You would be joining a successful department which achieves excellent outcomes for students each year and which continually strives to improve and develop. Students on our sociology course are passionate and enthusiastic about their learning and many choose to go on to study sociology at university in order to further develop their understanding around the subject. We are confident that you will find working with our students a very rewarding experience.

If you would like further details about the position please contact our SLT link for sociology icornell@thomas-hardye.net.